

2011 Healthy Homes & Child Care Conference

A Healthy Indiana Begins Where We Live, Learn, Work and Play

Oct. 5-6 at the Marten House Hotel & Lilly Conference Center, Indianapolis.

Learn more and register at www.ikecoalition.org/2011conference

Keynote Speakers:

Nsedu Obot Witherspoon,
Executive Director,
Children's Environmental Health Network

Sara Snow, Green Living
Expert and Television Host

Featured Speakers:

- Indiana Attorney General Greg Zoeller (invited)
- State Senator Patricia Miller, Chair, Senate Health & Provider Services Committee
- Julie Morris, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

Four concurrent learning tracks:

- Keeping Children Lead-Safe
- Healthy Homes and Asthma Prevention
- Environmental Health
- Maintaining a Healthy Childcare Facility

Some breakout session topics:

- Urban gardening in lead-contaminated soil
- CDC guidelines for pregnant women and lead
- Best practices for home visiting programs
- Keeping homes clean, dry, safe, well-maintained, ventilated, and contaminant-free
- Bedbug prevention and problem-solving
- Super bacteria in the food chain
- Health impacts of climate change
- Phthalates and BPA in household products
- Ensuring a healthy child care environment

Scholarships are available!

Pre-Conference Training Workshop: Master Home Environmentalist

On Tuesday, Oct. 4, attend an optional 6-hour Master Home Environmentalist (MHE) Training Course provided by the American Lung Association of Indiana.

When: 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Tuesday, October 4.

Where: Environmental Management Institute, 5610 Crawfordsville Road, Suite 15.

Who: Limited to the first 30 registrants.

Cost: an additional $25, which includes lunch, course materials and green cleaning supplies.

Sponsors:

